DEKO INDIA

Deko India is a program started by Bluebell Educational Tours. Deko India offers an outstanding experience in this fascinating country full of cultures and wonderful attractions. India has become a most-visited destination because of its architecture and cultural diversity. It has become famous because of its heart and beauty. Deko India offers a wide range of cultural activities, with a tour to different places all over the country. As a university study group, we take you to various heritage sites to study the architecture and development of art through the ages. Students learn about the oldest civilizations that gives you an insight into the development and growth during the historic times. We also provide support in carrying out religious research and work on different religions and the teachings of Buddha, Guru Nanak, Jainism and more which will help you understand the behavioural patterns of people in those times. Moreover, India is also the centre for industrial growth and space development. We help you coordinate with these organization for better learning. A trip to the industries and such space centres have also be planned for through active and explorative experiences. These tours provide you a complete break from lives full of exposure, learning and fun.
